Product Features

Designed For Your Little Angel: If you are about to start the food diversification stage, the JY baby food bowls set is exactly what you need to make this process easier! It can help support self-feeding and transform every meal into an interactive and exciting journey of self-discovery and taste development!

What's In the Set: Our baby dinnerware set includes the essential self-feeding baby supplies, for a comfortable and rewarding experience! The set comes with a silicone bowl with suction, a baby bib with catcher, two matching silicone spoons, and a giftable package box for easy carrying and fun meals at the restaurant, vacation, holiday, or home!

Highest Quality Materials: The toddler eating utensils are made with high-quality, food-grade silicone, which is free of harsh chemicals, BPA, phthalates, or PVC. These silicone baby feeding utensils are also safe to use in the dishwasher, freezer, microwave, and very easy to clean given the smooth, non-sticky finish.

Fun Meal-Time: Our baby bowls with suction provide strong adherence on the table to prevent your toddler from accidentally spilling the food while the adjustable baby bib catches the food dropping from the little one, which can save you time and energy with cleaning and provide more time for fun meals.

Lovely Gift for Parents: Surprise your friends or new parents with a chic baby registry gift that will make an impression to last! The silicone utensil set is perfect for baby-led weaning, self-feeding, solid transition, making a great present for baby shower, baby milestone, newborn arrival, birthday, anniversary, and other special occasions.
